Dear Alfendo
 I guess the time has come to say good by. You know
 I hate that word like I hate
 Peter Andersnatti per-her. When I think back of all the fun I have had I can't help balling about it.
 This school is one school I'll never regret leaving. I have gone to three schools but this one tops them. Because there so many nice people like you.

Journalism Class Dedication

DEDICATION

The Journalism Class of 1960 would like to dedicate this edition of the Pow Wow to all the new L-7 students who will come to Stanford in the fall. With all sincerity we hope that you will appreciate and enjoy all that we have experienced this past year and more.

May the way of life you pick be the best. When your graduation day arrives, we are sure that you will leave with many happy memories as we are in 1960. Good luck to you all.

FAREWELL NOTES

For my last few words as your president I would like to thank all my friends and teachers for the confidence and support you have shown me. It has been a pleasure and privilege to be your president. I will never forget this great honor. The best of luck to you all.

Jimmy Waters
Student Body President, Spring '60

I am very happy to have served as your Student Body Vice-president. I wish to thank you all for giving me this wonderful opportunity. I am especially grateful to my teachers and friends for the help and guidance they have given me.

I wish you all, and especially the incoming officers, the best of luck and happiness.

Julia May
Student Body Vice-president, Spring '60

Well, graduation is here and my term of serving as your Student Body Secretary is coming to a close. I would like to thank each and every one of my teachers and friends for their wonderful support through my years at Stanford. It has been a pleasure and a lot of fun being your secretary. I will always remember the good times I have had and, most of all, my friends!

Don't forget me too soon. Best wishes and good luck.

Carol Yamabe
Student Body Secretary, Spring '60

I have enjoyed very much being your Student Body Treasurer and I wish to thank everyone who made it possible. It has been a great pleasure serving you. During my term as an officer I had a whole lot of fun, and I shall never forget it.

I would now like to take this opportunity to welcome the incoming officers and congratulate them. I hope their term in office will be as enjoyable as mine has been.

Shirley Adolfo
Student Body Treasurer, Spring '60

Knowing you these past years, working with you and watching you as you have grown in so many experiences has truly been a pleasure for Sandi, Diane, and myself. Now, as we leave you, taking with us memories filled with joy and satisfaction we want to wish you continued success in school and a happy life. Good luck always.

GOOD-BY, GRADS

May 20, 1960

As you go through life many things will be given you. Many things you will acquire easily. However, this will not be true of knowledge. Knowledge you must acquire for yourself. Fortunately, we live in a land where you can do just that - in our American Public Schools.

We must maintain a fervent devotion to American ideals, safeguard those ideals, and pass them on to future generations. Freedom to seek the truth is our heritage as a people. It is our defense against the designs of despots - everywhere.

Be of good cheer. We are united in this: we believe in America, we cherish its traditions, and we have faith in its future.

To my "Brother,"

You have always been so nice, kind, and considerate. You made a very good "FATHER" in the H-9 Play, but I'm glad that you aren't really my "FATHER" for then it wouldn't be as much fun. I'm just satisfied with you being my "BROTHER". Hee! I'm running out of things to say so:

ORCHESTRA

Front row, left to right: Gloria Klassen, Carolyn Ortiz, Carol Martin, Lyn Larson, Shirlee Raymond, Leslie Kay, Tamara Whitcomb, and Claudia Robertson.

Second row: Jim Waters, Karen Wilson, Janis Belgum, Carole Matsumoto, Terrence Owashi, Terry Lack, and Steven Orth.

Third row: Richard Warner, John Hathaway, Richard Dominguez, Floyd Thompson, Bill Corey, and Mr. Douglas.

SENIOR BAND

Second row: Harley Henderson, Sharon Ellison, Anita Morris, Leslie Murato, Terry Lack, Shirlee Raymond, Janis Belgum, Donna Dunham, Scott Jarvis, and Sharon Poe.

Third row: Terence Owashi, Carlos Baptista, Bill Bullough, Carole Matsumoto, Melvin Duvall, Karen Wilson, Richard Dominguez, Danny Kemp, and Floyd Thompson.

Fourth row: David Edwards, James Waters, Paul Reed, Colin Berry, Wayne Gates, Billy Helmer, Steven Orth, Bill Corey, John Hathaway, and Jack Wyatt.

DANCE BAND

This years' band under the direction of Mr. Boschee and the orchestra under the direction of Mr. Douglas were excellent, as usual, in their many appearances this past year.

This year the band, orchestra, and chorus, combined with the other junior high schools in the city, again performed in the annual Music Festival that was held on the 5th and 6th of May in the Memorial Auditorium before packed houses.

The dance band played at noon dances for the 8th and 9th graders only due to the new double lunch periods. They again did their usual fine job.

The senior band went to two elementary schools and played concerts for the enjoyment of the students and teachers.

The band has also learned to march and drill in preparation for their appearance in the Memorial Day Parade.

The orchestra added to the night's festivities when they played at the H-9 Play on the 2nd and 3rd of June.

The members of the senior orchestra also were treated to an ice skating party with only a few spills. After the party they went to Mr. Douglas's house for refreshments.

The orchestra brought their year to a close when they played on Class Day.

TEN YEARS HENCE

I am the great fortune teller of the sacred blood. I was born of the Mornint Star and the Evening Star. My heavenly possession is my magic crystal ball which was presented to me by the King of Mars. As I gaze at it before me I can see the magic mists parting revealing the future of the 1960 Stanford Junior High graduates, ten years hence.

As the picture clears I come upon a very familiar scene. The setting is at Stanford. Through the front door into the main hall and then into the main office we go. There I see MARLENE WOOLSTENCROFT, the principal, sitting at her desk dictating a letter to her handsome secretary, KENNY WILLIAMS, and indian wrestling with the vice-principal, MARK WOOLSTENCROFT.

As we leave this dramatic scene we continue on to the nurse's office where LORRETTA BRUNNELL and ROSEMARY BENNETTS are practicing nursing on DR. NORMAN PANIAGUA. He is putting up a tough fight but -- yes! They got that band-aid on his finger.

Next we come to the counselors' offices where JOYCE WILLIAMS, JOYCE HOLSTEN, EVELYN DAVIS, and ED OVERBAY are the counselors and are all in an exciting game of poker.

We next visit the algebra class here RUDY MURRAY is teaching his moaning class, beating his pet peeve over the head with a ruler, and yelling at the top of his lungs. Well, ahem, er -- well, off we go to a new place where taking form before me I see MARGARET LEBEAU teaching Jim -- I mean er -- gym. Oh, no! She's up to some of her old pranks. She's putting gum on SANDY TAUNT'S (the superintendent) desk and pouring sneezing powder into the students' lockers. Oh, no! Splash! She just pushed JOYCE GADDY, the other gym teacher, into the showers.

Now the mists are carrying me away to Washington, D.C., where JIM WATERS, the president of the United States, is giving a talk on taxes. JULIA MAY, the Secretary of State, is noting all he says. The Secretary of the Treasury, STELLA CASTRO, is jotting down her expenses. This is a heart warming scene but we must move on because the mists are forming a new scene across the seas.

The great opera singer of the Seventies, DWAYNE (COLE), THE GREAT, is performing tonight! Crowds are shoving and pushing for the chance to hear him sing at least one note. Cameras are grinding and lights are flashing but now this scene fades as we move on again to the crowning of Miss Universe! Here they come! A whole line of beautiful girls are marching gracefully over the golden stage. Whistles, cheers, and screams greet the contestants, DONNA FORRESTER, VERONICA GONZALES, BLANCHE JONES, GLORIA KLASSEN, SHIRLEY ADOLFO, BARBARA REAGAN, VALENTINA SANCHEZ, LORALEI TODD, FAYE WRIGHT, CAROL YAMABE, and so many others. The judges, JOE PEOPLES, MARLOWE SKAR, ALFRED TIEDEMANN, JOHN TROXEL, JOHN USHER, ERNEST WILLIAMS, JACK WYATT, TOM GISLER, and CARLOS BAPTISTA, are engaging in a bloody fight to decide the winner. Ah, it looks like they have reached a decision! The winner is BILL COREY! He's standing up now and gazing with an evil smile at the sobbing losers.

Following the crowning of the charming winner by the battered judges (they must be out of their minds) entertainment is provided by those four dainty dancers CHERYL GALLI, LINDA FOOTE, LINDA KALE, and BARBARA HASKETT whom tripped and fell at the winner's feet only to be stepped on by that giant of a woman, SHARON ELLISON. The current teen-age rave, pop singer MARVIN BAIMA is singing a couple of numbers including "Pop Goes the Weasle" and other current favorites. I can see that star athlete, MELVIN BUDMARK, the only 96 letterman in history, is going to talk on "What Wheaties Has Done For Me."

This time the crystal seems to be fading for good with the words, the end is the end is the end is the end.

WHAT I LIKED ABOUT STANFORD WAS-----

Rudy Murray: It was easy and has lots of nice girls.

Clyde Tyler: Girls.

Gloria Klassen: Mrs. Brady's algebra class.

Gene Dykstra: Lunchtime.

Mary Ellen Andrus: The teachers.

Peter Krogh: Working in the Print Shop.

Terance Owashi: The 3:15 bell.

Joan Williams: Talking and eating in foods.

Sarah Brown: My English, sewing, and science classes.

Diane Fisher: A certain boy.

Jeff Javaher: Crafts.

Doris Ingle: The boys and gym.

Ed Dunzweiler: Seventh Period study.

Lynda Kale: Mr. Nagel's tests.

Shirley Oman: Mrs. Solander and Coach Carpenter.

Joe Peoples: Walking down Sacramento Blvd. half asleep.

Diane Greenwald: Doing homework.

Louise Holscher: Mr. Nagel because when he gives homework he explains it.

Carol Yamabe: The Snack Bar.

Janice Newman: The 12:40 bell and the 3:15 bell.

Shirley Adolfo: Lunch at the Jolly Kone.

Pat Ehrenberg: The people, my friends, and the fun I have had.

Julia May: Mrs. Nicolaus and Friday at 3:15.

Claudette Butler: Mrs. Douma.

Pat Andrus: Art class.

Jackie Fong: The High-nine Play.

Rosemary Bennetts: Flirting with the boys.

Quentin Fox: Math.

Yvonne Goldthread: My graduation day.

Eileen Sangmaster: Lunch and the 3:15 bell.

John Usher: Nothing.

Sandy Taunt: The running water and Mrs. Nicolaus' help with my algebra.

Janet Ritacca: Sticking my tongue out at Mr. Schnetz.

Jimmy Waters: The end of Seventh Period.

Marvin Mack: When it is time for gym and study.

Evelyn Davis: I liked the days my teachers were in a good mood.

Barbara Oreb: When I sneaked out of sewing.

Cheryl White: Certainly not the desks.

Joyce Williams: The south door leading out and the 3:15 bell.

Dolores Tafoya: The food.

Mary Ann Herrera: Any kind of a bell; even a fire bell.

Donna Forrester: You'd be surprised!

Jack Wyatt: Tina Sanchez.

Johnnie Brown: The sports activities.

GRADUATION, 1960

by Donna Forrester

It's a time for joy, a time for tears, a time we'll treasure through the years. We'll remember always graduation day.

In a few days the present High-nines of Stanford will be leaving and the thought of graduation brings this song to the minds of many graduates for it is a time for joy at the prospect of graduating. To many of us it will also be a time for tears. Many of our friends will be moving away. Many are not High-nines yet and will remain at Stanford.

Graduation will be a time of many memories; of the High-nine Play, the Variety Show, of the homework you forgot to do, or the warning cards you received for missing an assignment or flunking a test. These and other memories both good and bad we will take with us. But with these memories in mind we can look forward to the future with a clearer understanding and determination to meet and conquer what may come.

by Marjorie Brown

In a few days the High-nines will finally be graduating. Can you believe it? When you walk on stage for your diploma, your heart will probably be fluttering, for this is the day you've been waiting for - to graduate from Stanford.

Graduating is a pretty big event in your lives and pretty serious, too. You probably have worked hard to graduate and now you should realize that you will not only go on to a higher level of education, but will be taking a step toward preparing for your life ahead.

Also, when you go on to high school after you graduate, you will probably make many new friends, join clubs, have many dates, and find a school spirit within you in a much deeper sense.

But, behind all the fun you'll have, is work! Of course, the studies that you choose will be harder, and you might complain, but after you finish high school, you'll be glad you did study so hard.

So, as you graduate, remember all the good times you've had at Stanford, but also think about the deep seriousness of the occasion, and, I hope, the wonderful beginning graduation is. Good luck!

I Was So Embarrassed

Sharon Wallace: When I ran for office and sang "Frankie".

Nancy Hughes: When Linda and I were dancing with Norman and we both fell.

George Wright: When I went outside with my gym shorts on backwards.

Linda Cheney: When I fell while running down the hall with some books.

John Gonzales: When I was in a store and pushed over a row of dress dummies.

Linda Burress: When Norman made Nancy and I fall while dancing with him.

Margaret Nadey: When I called a teacher "Honey" from habit.

Janis Belgum: When a teacher intercepted a note I passed and read it aloud.

Paul Reed: When I almost got suspended for kissing in the hall.

Loralei Todd: When I dropped some flour as Mr. Egeberg walked into cooking.

Linda Foote: When in the Variety Show John Raya almost dropped me.

Louise Hoelscher: When I fell on my face in front of my boyfriend.

Alfred Tiedemann: When Carol Yamabe kissed me.

Elaine Cook: When I came to school with two different shoes on.

Rosemary Bennetts: When the stocking fell off the foot I had a cast on.

Marlowe Skar: When I was born on January 4, 1944.

Jimmy Waters: When I reached down to pick up a book and my pants ripped.

Dolores Tafoya: When my little sister's panties fell down while I was with her.

Susie Spears: When my mother caught me pushing dirt under the carpet.

Josie Guajardo: When I fell off the stairs.

Pat Kiefer: When I forgot to do my English homework.

Verma Godfrey: When I came to school with my dress on backwards.

Marvin Baima: When I had to do a scene with Cheryl Galli in English.

Diane Fisher: When I was with a boy and he yelled, "Let go of my pants!"

Carolyn Matranga: When Mr. Doudnik stumbled over my big purse.

PET PEEVES

Carol Yamabe: Homework!
